

European Union

- Formed in 1993. Currently consists of 27 member states.
- Has united Europe politically and economically. Succeeded in creating a European parliament, a court, and a common currency.
- The largest GDP in the world

